

Living in a housing company in Finland

Do you know how a housing company operates in Finland and what rights and responsibilities you have as an owner or as a resident?

Answers to these questions can be found on the English website of the Finnish Real Estate Federation as well as on YouTube (link to the videos can be found on the website).

www.kiinteistoliitto.fi/en/livinginahousingcompany

The topics include the following themes:

- What is a housing company?
- Who manages the housing company?
- General Meeting
- Maintenance and due care
- Renovation and alteration work
- Electricity and water
- Insurance
- Taking possession of an apartment

Scan me!

The Finnish Real Estate Federation (FREF) is the central association for property owners and landlords in Finland. There are over 33,000 member-owned properties in Finland, which are home to around 2 million people - around 36 % of the total population.